The bell was original to School #13, later known as Washington School, on Academy Street, built in 1883. The school came under the jurisdiction of Rockaway Borough when the Borough split from the Township in 1894. The bell has recently been restored and will be on permanent display on the grounds of the Rockaway Borough Historical Museum.

The dedication ceremony will take place regardless of weather, starting promptly at 1 p.m. and will run approximately twenty minutes. The public is invited to attend. Attire is casual.
